

Loving You

Jasper Japink maart 2017

Love is like a seed that needs water.
It only grows if you take care.
Caring for the feelings of the other.
I stopped waiting for it so long ago.

At night I can't sleep thinking about you.
The way you've treated me just ain't right.
That I never told you doesn't make it better.
My feelings I just can't hide.

Think I have to call you and get it over with.
This constant terror in my mind.
If you could only show me how much you care for me.
I guess I would dare to love you back again.
Loving you is harder than I expected,
Loving you girl.

We could stay at home and do nothing.
Going round in circles all the time.
Never intimate like all the times before.
I'm getting sick of being rejected all the time.
I think I'm gonna make, I think I'm gonna make that special call.

Solo

Think I have to call you and get it over with.
This constant terror in my mind.
Maybe if you'd leave me, maybe if you'd be gone.
Why didn't we dare to...
Love each other, each other.
Loving' you is hard girl oh no
Loving' you is hard girl oh no
